Across:

1. These men are responsible for leadership of a diocese and concern for the entire Church.
5. These men serve as co-workers to a bishop, caring for a parish community and celebrating Mass.
6. Elector of the Pope. Today most are also bishops, but that is not an absolute requirement.
8. A gathering of the bishops from around the world to decide questions of belief and practice.
9. A group of priests elected by their fellow priests to serve as an advisory council for their bishop.

Down:

2. A term referring to the successors to the Apostles as a group, under the leadership of the Pope.
3. Common name for the Bishop of Rome
4. These ordained people are not priests. They work directly under their bishop in community service.
7. A gathering of ordained persons who meet to discuss & decide on questions of belief, practice & liturgy.
